HCG RESPONDS TO ORACLE'S PUSH TOWARD AGGREGATE STORAGE OPTION AND OFFERS NEW ASO BOOTCAMP

Minneapolis, MN – May 11, 2010 – Harbinger Consulting Group announces the addition of Essbase Aggregate Storage Option (ASO) Bootcamp to their Oracle Hyperion training curriculum. Registration is now open for this course delivered in an economical live virtual training format scheduled for June 21-24th.

ASO was introduced in the Essbase world as an alternative to the traditional Block Storage Option and Oracle has since made many improvements and added features. HCG offers this course to provide essential knowledge needed to get started on developing comprehensive ASO applications. Fundamental concepts will include designing, building and tuning an Oracle Essbase aggregate storage database (ASO). This unique HCG course also emphasizes instruction on Smart View and a comparison to the Essbase Block Storage Option. A full course description and outline is available by visiting HCG's online Oracle Hyperion training catalog. For information on how to register for this course and receive 25% off the list price please contact your Harbinger Consulting Group representative at 866.565.0604.
