FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Harbinger Consulting Group and Arrow ECS Partner to Deliver the Industry's Best BI Strategy from Oracle

Minneapolis, Minn. – February 15, 2008 – Harbinger Consulting Group (HCG) is partnering with Arrow Enterprise Computing Solutions (ECS) to implement service and support the Oracle® Business Intelligence (BI) portfolio of technology and applications. "HCG is excited to be partnering with one of the industry's leading distributors of information technology," said Joe Axe, HCG Vice President, Business Development. "We look forward to working with Arrow ECS and demonstrating the advantages of using the Hyperion System suite of products to solve real-world challenges."

HCG's partnership with Arrow ECS gives the firm the supplier relationships, scale and resources to meet present and future customer needs. In addition to providing pre-sales technical support and order fulfillment management for multi-platform and single-platform solutions, Arrow ECS offers business planning and marketing services, flexible financing and customized configurations that provide a high-level of support for all of its partners' business needs.
