HCG ANNOUNCES VP OF ORACLE HYPERION EDUCATION SERVICES AND GLOBAL DELIVERY CENTER

Leena Shah joins Harbinger Consulting Group as Vice President of Services.

Minneapolis, MN – May 19, 2010 –HCG is excited to elevate their Oracle Hyperion Training practice and Global Delivery Center with the addition of Leena Shah as Vice President of Services. Shah joins HCG as they continue to expand on their successful Oracle partnership and increase their presence as the preferred resource for Oracle Hyperion Education, Consulting and Application Solutions.

Shah is most recently accredited as being the driving force behind the significant growth of Kerdock Consulting's Education Practice where she served as Director of Education Services for the last two years. Prior to that she served as Education Resource Manager at Hyperion Solutions through the Oracle acquisition in 2007 in which Oracle began developing the EPM, Oracle Business Intelligence Product Road Map. Shah's experience with the combined product solutions will be a great asset to HCG and their clients.

As the only Oracle Approved Education Center \(OAEC\) in the Midwest that specializes in Oracle Hyperion EPM and OBIEE; HCG is excited to bring Shah on board to lead their strong training division into the next phase of development. Shah will also oversee the HCG Global Delivery Center (GDC) and manage the utilization of offshore resources as an economical and effective way to ensure high return on investment and expand HCG's scope of Business Intelligence and EPM expertise to clients world-wide.

"We look forward to expanding our business opportunities with Leena's strategic planning and leadership skills," said Dave Nolby, President of HCG. "Her extensive experience with Oracle Hyperion applications and proven track record in the industry make Leena an ideal addition to the HCG Global Delivery and Educational Services team."

"I am excited to be joining HCG to drive an already established Education Practice to the next level" said Shah. "The Global Delivery Center will be a key focus to take to the next phase of it's development."

HCG believes in exceeding client expectations and is excited to leverage their entire Services team to ensure their client base has best in class service and integrated solutions for all of their Oracle Hyperion needs.
